Dear Stitchers,

It is the middle of April and Spring is here in Charleston but, unfortunately, we are all quarantined in our home. Hopefully you are stitching all your stash and keeping yourself safe and sane.

Just remember to send me your finishing as soon as you are completed. The finishers will be overwhelmed this year so send as soon as possible. At the latest we want your stitched stockings and other pieces by August 1st.

I recently received a few new Jean Smith Design canvases that I thought you would enjoy seeing. These pieces are all 14" x 14" and on 13 Mesh.

In keeping with my idea of the wonderful ornaments of the 12 Days of Christmas, below are four that are designed by The Plum Stitchery.

I am sure that many of you, like myself, follow various needlepoint groups on Facebook and view wonderful canvases and stitches. I saw this one below last week. It is a Raymond Crawford canvas, but what I loved was the Palm Tree background stitch. We are always looking for interesting background stitches and interesting open work gives great texture to a canvas.

I am in the shop every day from 10:30 to 2:30 so if you need anything please call (843-722-1528) and/or email me (madonna@cabbagerow.com) and I will be happy to either ship it to you or walk it out to your car.
