Dear Stitchers,

A note of interest to all of you, especially those in the Charleston area, that on this Memorial Day weekend we will be closed tomorrow, Monday, May 25th.

Even though this is the beginning of the summer season with the Memorial Day Weekend, we realize that the world is still in turmoil. But to keep everyone thinking summer, I thought a few summer/beach canvases would put everyone in the right frame of mind!

Remember that we are available with both email and telephone to send you any supplies that you may need.

July 15th is the date to remember as the last date to get finishing to us to get it back for Christmas.

Enjoy your holiday weekend and be safe!

Madonna

Carole, Ginger, Karen, Laurie, Marti, Susan and, of course, Holly!
